Plains of Abraham Québec City treats itself to a free Odyssey

Québec City, December 18, 2009 – The National Battlefields Commission invites the public to become tourists in their own city and immerse themselves in the history of Québec's rallying site par excellence. Every Saturday and Sunday of January and of February, the residents of Québec City and its surroundings will have the chance to visit, free of charge, the multimedia exhibition Odyssey: a journey through history on the Plains of Abraham, by showing proof of residency.

The Plains of Abraham: a park at the centre of the lives of citizens, a unique historic site in North America. Head for the Odyssey multimedia exhibition and discover the importance of the Plains of Abraham in the country's history. A 400-year captivating virtual journey alongside the great characters who helped shape our history, from the birth of New France to the creation of the park through the famous battles of the Plains of Abraham and Sainte-Foy. A remarkable collection of 20 regimental uniforms complete this exhibition. Multimedia technology, special effects, animatronics, interactive games, listen to the history of the Plains as you never heard it before.

The Odyssey multimedia exhibition is presented from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
at the Discovery Pavilion of the Plains of Abraham
