

Government of Canada

Gouvernement du Canada

The National Battlefields
Commission

Commission des champs
de bataille nationaux

INTERPRETER-GUIDE (ON CALL)

The Battlefields Park, which includes the Plains of Abraham, is the country's first national historic park and among the foremost urban parks. More than 40 activities are offered to groups (mostly student groups), which accounts for more than 75,000 visitors a year from Québec, Ontario and the United States.

The job of interpreter-guide is a stimulating one. Our activities are offered in both English and French on the same site as the great battles of 1759-1760, an outstanding working environment in the heart of the city. You will integrate a dynamic team working in a lively cultural setting.

Description of the main duties:

- Receive groups to promote discovery, understanding and appreciation of the historic themes related to the site and the Commission.
- Lead groups as you personify various historical characters in lively, diversified activities (lantern tours, battle reconstructions, military competitions, role playing, etc.).

Job requirements:

- Knowledge of Canadian history.
- Be (or have been) enrolled in a recognized university.
- Valid driver's licence.
- Experience in group leadership, teaching or interpretation.
- Very good knowledge of the two official languages.
- Be willing to work according to a flexible schedule, daytime, evening and weekends.
- Good teamwork skills.

Employment conditions:

- On call.
- Salary: based on the collective agreement, $21.85 /hour. Evening and weekend premiums.

Please send your resume, indicating the position you seek, by September 11, 2019, to:

The National Battlefields Commission

835 Wilfrid-Laurier Avenue, Québec (Québec) G1R 2L3

Fax: 418 648-3809

Email: information@cbtn-nbc.gc.ca

Please note that only selected applicants will be contacted for an interview.

Canada 