A standout program of 22 shows will be presented from Thursdays to Sundays. It's a one-of-a-kind setting in the heart of nature where you will discover and enjoy well-known artists and tomorrow's headliners. Whether you come out for blues, folk, pop, or world music, these concerts will sure inject a little extra sunshine into your summer.

Concerts will continue on Sunday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings until June 30 and, after the Festival d'Été de Québec, from July 19 to Aug. 5 at 8 p.m. Refer to the Edwin-Bélanger Bandstand website for the detailed program.

From jazz to blues, world music and music from Quebec, rock, pop, country or rap, discover impassioned artists eager to share their world with you. This year, the Bandstand by Invitation will present two concerts bringing together a selection of artists from the 2018 programming. Enjoy the first show (June 10) with Renée Wilkin, Catherine Durand and Fredy V. The second Bandstand by Invitation (July 26) will present innovative and lively performances by Jérôme Couture, Annie Blanchard and Dramatik.

Tribute concerts have always attracted fans to the Bandstand. This edition proposes three: Scorpions by IN TRANCE, Pink Floyd by Pulse Fiction and Le jazz de mon pays by Jean-François Lambert, presenting a jazzed-up version of the Quebec group Harmonium.

For the seventh year, audiences are invited to share their favourite show of the season. They will be able to vote online by completing the theplainsofabraham.ca form. The winner of the 2018 Favourite Show will be announced on Monday, Aug. 6, the day after the closing concert. Angel Forrest, last year's winner, will be performing on Friday, July 20, to the delight of one and all.

Owing to environmental concerns, the National Battlefields Commission invites Bandstand enthusiasts to consult the program online. The program will also be on display at the Park (At the Joan of Arc Garden and near the Pavilion). The Bandstand's Facebook page is filled with information and posts on the artists and their fans. An info-show phone line is open at all times: 418-648-4050.
