In January and February, Québec embarks upon a unique *Odyssey

Québec, December 20, 2010 – The National Battlefields Commission invites residents of the Greater Québec City area to view, and view again, Odyssey: a journey through history on the Plains of Abraham, totally free of charge. This multimedia exhibition shown at the Discovery Pavilion of the Plains of Abraham, will be available free of charge to citizens of the area every Saturday and Sunday in January and February, between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m., with proof of residence.

The Plains of Abraham is a park located in the heart of the activities, leisure and history of Québec City. Discover its history by attending a truly unique presentation. Lift the veil from the role played by the Plains of Abraham over the course of history, from the time the colony was established to the urban park as it is today. Captivating multimedia presentations and fascinating special effects are only part of this Odyssey. You can also see an outstanding collection of uniforms, and a collection of period objects and replicas that will thrill both children and adults.
